

Rally for the Cure Parent-Child Doubles Tournament

A fundraiser sponsored by Chestnut Ridge Racquet Club

Sunday, July 12, 2009

Purpose: This charitable event will raise dollars to help spread the message that early detection of breast cancer saves lives.

Event: Limited to 12 teams in each division. Registration begins at 11:30am. All round robin play will be finished by 4:30pm. Rain or shine.

A Division Parent-Child Doubles. The A Division is for competitive play.

B Division Parent-Child Doubles. The B Division is for social play.

Any adult (parent) or child seeking a partner will be paired by the Tournament Chairman. A team need not be related except by their desire to support an excellent cause.

Additional Activities: Fast Serve Contest, Longest Volley Contest, One-Point Tournament, Do Over and more!

Deadline: Entries must be received by Thursday, July 9, 2009.

Courts: Play on 6 indoor clay courts and 4 outdoor clay courts (weather permitting).

Format: Each division will be divided into three groups of four teams each. Eight total games will be played in each of the first three round robin matches. The winner of each group and the best 2nd place team will advance to the semi-finals in each division. After the round robin matches, additional informal play will be available.

Location: Chestnut Ridge Racquet Club. 30 Snyders Hill Road, Mount Kisco, New York.

Entry Fee: $30 per tournament player. $25 per non-playing guest. Fee includes tennis, lunch, one raffle ticket (additional tickets may be purchased), a goody bag, awareness materials from Susan G. Komen for the Cure, and a one-year subscription to a Condé Nast Publications magazine. Unable to attend? Please consider a contribution of $20, which includes all of the above minus tennis and lunch.

Please make checks payable to Chestnut Ridge Racquet Club.

All entry proceeds above $20 and any additional monies raised through raffle tickets and contests will be donated to Susan G. Komen for the Cure and is deductible for tax purposes.
