Indoor Season

JUNIOR GROUPS

September 14, 2026 through April 16, 2027

Groups at CRRC combine quality instruction with drills to teach proper technique & games to ensure a fun learning environment while providing a great workout! Our pros are certified & have a world-class background in playing & teaching tennis. Following USTA Net Generation fundamentals, students' progress through the phases of junior development, with a pathway toward Tournament Training for the competitive player.

Beginners: Introduces the forehand, backhand, serve & volley. Covers rules, scoring, etiquette, choice of equipment & basic strategy while developing through red, orange & green dot balls.

Advanced Beginners: Emphasizes ball control for those with basic skills. Covers fundamentals in detail. Introduces balance & footwork, overhead, low volleys, return of serve & strategy in singles & doubles.

Intermediates: Introduces advanced strokes. Covers use of spin & slice, approach shots, handling of high deep balls, anticipation & rhythm. Specialized drilling of basic skills & supervised match play.
