WINTER RULES & REGULATIONS

- Proper tennis attire and tennis sneakers only on courts.
- Players who are registered with a group and have paid a registration fee for the current season may play with other groups without being required to pay a guest fee.
- Non-playing guests are not permitted on the courts.
- All facilities at the Chestnut Ridge Racquet Club are used at the player's own risk.
- Children of members or guests 10-&-under shall be permitted in the clubhouse only if playing tennis, receiving instruction or accompanied by a member or a guest. Such child shall not be left unattended either in the club or on the club grounds, and shall not be left in the attendance of a person unless such person is 18-years of age or more.
- No child shall bring food to be eaten at the club nor shall such child be permitted to run freely in the club or do such acts, which might inconvenience the members or guests or cause damage to the club. The parent/guardian or the member/guest responsible for the child shall assume any and all expenses of damage caused by the child.
- Chestnut Ridge Racquet Club reserves the right to cancel this agreement for inconsiderate conduct, for littering of the courts, clubhouse, locker rooms, grounds and damage to the club and club grounds, or for the violation of any of the club rules.
- Shall any court become unplayable in the opinion of the manager, the group of players, thereby prevented from playing, will be offered an equivalent amount of make-up time during the indoor season vacation schedule or during the summer.
- Food is not allowed on the courts.
- Cellphones shall not be permitted for use on the courts.
- All players shall be courteous and respectful towards other members, guests and CRRC staff.
- The club will be open 7 days a week during the indoor fall/winter season. For any inclement weather closures please call the desk. The desk will open at 8:30am Monday through Friday and 7:30am on Saturday & Sunday.
